The library was closed in the early part of the year, the books called in, and carefully gone over by volunteers, who contributed a good many hours to the work. Very few books were found missing except of those that were very old, and of not much intrinsic value.

Eighty-two volumes have been added during the year, of which thirteen were gifts. Five magazines are also donated. The books noted above as added do not include twenty-four volumes of bound magazines.

REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

We herewith submit our annual report.

We feel, as do all citizens of the town, the irreparable loss which the District has met in the death of Mr. Goodwin, who faithfully fulfilled the obligations of chairman of the School Board for so many years. Mr Goodwin has been closely identified with the success of the School, always rendering efficient aid in a kindly manner.

During the summer and early fall extensive repairs were made upon the High School building, as was arranged a year ago at the District meetings.

The building is now convenient in arrangement, the lighting is good, the heating is sufficient and the division of grades into the four rooms provided by the change is certainly a great improvement.

Through the efforts of the class of 1893 a picture of Miss Mary S. Farley has been placed in the High School room. The Woman's Relief Corps, the King's Daughters and several interested friends have kindly donated pictures for the other school rooms, thus greatly improving the interiors, and we gratefully acknowledge the gifts.

A class of six was graduated from the High School in June and the present enrollment of thirty-four, shows the largest attendance the school has had for some time.

The District Schools at No. 6 and No. 4 have been continued through the year. The school at No. 3 was not re-opened in the fall, a Nashua school has accommodated part of the scholars of that section, and there is imperative need that satisfactory arrangements be made for the remainder.

There have been few changes in teachers. In the fall Miss Reid was transferred from the Patche's Corner school to the fourth, fifth and sixth grades in the village, and Miss Boynton of Pepperell, Mass., was chosen teacher of the first, second and third grades.

It has been the earnest desire of the Board to provide a special teacher for music and drawing, but as circumstances have interfered
